The funeral took place on Monday at the General Cemetery of the late Mr. Cyril Burberry Gibbons, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gibbons, of One Ash, Crescent-road, Luton, whose death occurred on Wednesday of last week, after a brief illness. Mr. Gibbons was engaged as a draughtsman in the Seaplane Section of the R.N.A.S., having risen to that position by sheer ability. The Vicar of Luton (Rev. A. E. Chapman) officiated. Those present at the graveside were: Mr. Gibbons, Mr. Bardell, Miss Bardell, Miss Trissie Gibbons, Mr. Percy Gibbons, Mr. Sam Gibbons, Mr. Gilbert Panter, and Mr. Charles Mares. The following floral tributes were sent:—"In affectionate remembrance of a loving and devoted Son, from Father and Mother"; "Farewell, beloved, from your broken-hearted Florence"; "In loving memory of the best of brothers, from Percy and Connie"; "In fondest memory of our dear brother, from Rita and Gilbert"; "In fondest love, from Trissie and Doris"; "With fondest love, from Joan and Boy—'We wish you were still here, Joan.'"; "In loving memory of dear Cyril, from Mr. and Mrs. G. Bardell and family"; "With deepest sympathy, from Mr. and Mrs. T. Allen, Jessie and Agnes"; "With deepest sympathy, from all at Denmark House"; "With most sincere sympathy, from Percy and Nan"; "With deepest sympathy, from Mrs. Cook"; "In affectionate remembrance of dear Cyril, from Winnie and Will and little Joan"; "In affectionate remembrance, from Clifford Starke"; "A mark of deep sympathy and respect, from the staff of the Seaplane Office at Hotel Cecil."—The funeral arrangements were satisfactorily carried out by Messrs. J. Saunders & Son.
