

LUTON MILITARY CROSS.

SECOND-LIEUT. C. F. IRONS.

A Luton boy who has obtained a commission after service in the ranks, Second-Lieut. C. Irons, only son of Mr. S. Irons, 60a, Park-street, has put the seal to his fine work by winning the Military Cross. The young officer, who is but 21 years of age, is in the Loyal North Lancashires, but at present is attached to the 9th East Surreys. He holds the rank of Battalion Signalling Officer, and at present is acting as Demobilisation Officer, in France, of the 9th East Surreys.

He joined the Army three years ago, and after service in the ranks of the King's Royal Rifle Corps, trained at Trinity College, Cambridge, for his commission.

No details are yet to hand as to the nature of the work which secured for him the decoration mentioned.

---